

TASTING NOTES

CHEVAL des ANDES 2001

Cheval des Andes is a fusion between the renowned Saint-Emilion «Premier Grand Cru Classé A»: Château Cheval Blanc and Terrazas de los Andes, an Argentine winery specialized in Premium high altitude winemaking for more than two decades.

Such magical encounter results in a refined, subtle and complex “Grand Cru of the Andes” that combines the savoir-faire of the assemblage with French origin varieties planted in 1929 in the best high altitude terroirs of Mendoza:

Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo.

CHEVAL des ANDES 2001

Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina

Varieties

Malbec (40%), Cabernet Sauvignon (60%).

Colour

Lovely, deep black cherry.

Aroma

Great intensity, opening up in the glass into very complex hints of cherry jam, dried apricots and mint with slightly floral notes, such as violets, together with chocolate and tobacco.

Palate

Powerful on the palate with a perfect balance. The fruit predominates with flavours of black cherry, blackcurrant and confit notes, mingling with flavours of chocolate, spices and almonds. The tannins that come through in the finish add a wonderful elegance to the remarkably fresh fruit in this great wine.

Harvest date
