

TASTING NOTES

CHEVAL des ANDES 2004

Cheval des Andes is a fusion between the renowned Saint-Emilion «Premier Grand Cru Classé A»: Château Cheval Blanc and Terrazas de los Andes, an Argentine winery specialized in Premium high altitude winemaking for more than two decades.

Such magical encounter results in a refined, subtle and complex “Grand Cru of the Andes” that combines the savoir-faire of the assemblage with French origin varieties planted in 1929 in the best high altitude terroirs of Mendoza:

Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo.

CHEVAL des ANDES 2004

Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina

Varieties

Malbec (55%), Cabernet Sauvignon (43%), Petit Verdot (2%).

Colour

Profound core of black-crimson framed by inviting traces of bright violet.

Aroma

Opens with notes of fresh red and black berry fruit, complemented by subtle hints of moist earth and slate. Residual aromas of truffles, spices and walnuts dominate the glass after swirling.

Palate

Envelops the senses with elegant and warm bramble and forest berries. A complex mid-palate with a medium structure yet densely packed jam preserves and floral notes evolves into a long finish with lingering reminders of Andes minerality, mushrooms and wood spices.

Harvest date

April, 2004
