

TASTING NOTES

CHEVAL des ANDES 2010

Cheval des Andes is a fusion between the renowned Saint-Emilion «Premier Grand Cru Classé A»: Château Cheval Blanc and Terrazas de los Andes, an Argentine winery specialized in Premium high altitude winemaking for more than two decades.

Such magical encounter results in a refined, subtle and complex “Grand Cru of the Andes” that combines the savoir-faire of the assemblage with French origin varieties planted in 1929 in the best high altitude terroirs of Mendoza:

Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo.

TERRAZAS DE LOS ANDES

CHEVAL des ANDES 2010

Las Compuertas, Luján de Cuyo, Mendoza, Argentina

Varieties

Malbec (50%), Cabernet Sauvignon (30%), Petit Verdot (20%).

Colour

It has an attractive dark red colour with purplish tinges.

Aroma

This wine stands out for its aromatic complexity, showing a floral and fresh outline with lavender, geranium, basil and mint notes. At the same time, ripe plum notes, minerals such as graphite, chocolate and anise tertiary aromas arise. A synthesis of the two previous harvests combining freshness and ripeness.

Palate

Fine and lingering. Juiciness and fluency on the palate relate to an important Petit Verdot contribution to this blend. This is a balanced wine with elegant tannins and an aromatic finish, reminiscent of black cherries.
